Introduction

It must be around 30 years when I first worked as a stagier for an Alsace wine producer, since my keen interest has become a great passion. So, as you can imagine, the production of our hotel wine list is an area of the business I love and absolutely refuse to let go of!

That said, I have made some good friends on the journey and I am particularly grateful to Peter Rowe of Liberty Wines for his help with this list. After many years of travels in the vineyards together, visiting producers and studying the wines of the world we have developed a great working relationship. While he does not always agree with me, he has acted as a great foil to my self-indulgent tendencies to ensure balance prevails without the loss of care and attention to detail and a personal touch in the selection!

Our wines are currently sourced from:

- ≈ Liberty Wines
- ≈ Berkmann Wine Cellars
- ≈ For the Love of Wine
- ≈ Enotria Winecellars

Please see our special purchases pages for a selection of wines of limited availability, including wines from around the world and fine Bordeaux.

😊 My Personal Selections

All wines are equal, but some wines are more equal than others!
My Personal Selections are my favourite wines from the list! Simple as that!
