Special Purchases

As an avid wine enthusiast, I often attend trade tastings, visit vineyards and wine fairs, and inevitably, from time to time I stumble across some really interesting "wine finds".

When they are great wines and good value, well it would be mad not to buy them! Inevitably not only do I buy more than I can drink at home, I feel a sense of duty to include these really interesting wines on the Hotel list to share the pleasure of these discoveries with our guests.

This section of the list includes these wines, together with a number of other wines of limited availability that are too rare or short-lived to enter onto the main list.

Ickworth Wine

Our local vineyard produces some truly stunning wines. Ickworth, 3 miles south of Bury St Edmunds, once the family estate of the Marquis of Bristol and his descendants is now owned by the National Trust, and is home to the only commercial vineyard on Trust Land. Wine maker Charles Macready is justifiably proud of his labour of love and its produce.

English ROSE WINE

- | | | |
|--|-----------|--------|
| 650. 2006 Lady Geraldine's Blush Ickworth vineyard | 6 Bottles | £19.55 |
|--|-----------|--------|

Received a bronze medal at the East Anglia Wine of the year 2007. Rondo grapes, dry refreshing acidity with hints of raspberries, damson and a redcurrant finish.

|---|-----------|--------|
| 651. 2004 Suffolk Pink Sparkling Ickworth Vineyard | 6 Bottles | £39.95 |
|---|-----------|--------|

Received a silver medal at the English and Welsh wine of the year competition. Produced from Auxerois and Pinot Noir grapes, the Pinot Noir Grapes give complexity and elegance to this rose. It is bottle fermented in the "Methode Traditionelle" as is Champagne. It is produced in limited quantities and is ideal for celebrating any major event in your calendar.

Champagne Henriot

Founded in Reims in 1808 by Apolline Godinot, Henriot Champagne celebrated its 200th anniversary last year and joins the exclusive circle of independently-owned, family-run Champagne houses that have had a bicentennial anniversary. The high proportion of Chardonnay grand crus makes this cuvée a complex and refined Champagne with fresh, delicate aromas.

Willi Opitz

Austria

Austria's reputation is in the ascendant. However, at the very top, they will find Willi Opitz is already there. From his smallholding of 14 hectares, the sheer variety of wines produced is astonishing. His reputation as a master of sweet wines is demonstrated in our Beerenauslese

635. Goldackerl Beerenauslese 2001	5 Half Bottles	£26.50
